You catch her staring into space with a dreamy smile. 'What are you dreaming of, custard apples?' Considering the number of times Lalitha eats, one wonders how she stays so thin. An active member of NSS, always ready to extend a helping hand, you can always find her clearing everyone's doubts the night before an exam, which speaks for itself how much of a stud our A1A7ite is. In spite of the fact that she looked for answers in a Con Sys open book test in an OT text, her diligence is inspiring, her innocence endearing. All the best to our Sweet Stud....

Sincere, staccato, spunky, serene and Shantanu are synonyms. The spasmodic exodus from the purist to the sadist has left many a soul perplexed. Fustian articulation elicits the thespian from the persona. Discharging a utopian aura this dithyrambic disciple of the candid has a penchant to psyche his wingies on the eve of a test by enacting a Morpheus. A true consort in the most tumultuous of times this congenial etcher has essayed many a Caesar in the arena of providence. Shantanu's motto is "Life is a mystery and an attempt to decipher it shall continue."

This lady strikes you as a grave person, but she is as funny as can be. Beware of her contagious laughter. Her zeal for knowledge is never ending and she thoroughly enjoys whatever she does. If you ever win her trust, rest assured that you have a friend for life. She is in awe of nature and vows to do something to improve it. One thing about her that appeals to you is her determination and her never say die attitude. With a wonderful sense of humour and spirits to match it, she is all set to attain her dreams and goals.

This lady does not walk...she waltzes into your heart. When you see this damsel with her pony flying high in the air, you'd easily believe that she danced even before she took her first step. This born-to-be dance-clubber is a quintessential Aquarian: a dreamer- yes; someone who simply has the knack of perceiving, gets the fine line between reality and surrealism. Her academic record surpasses the ordinary- contributing to that 'extra bit' which makes her an absolutely wonderful person.

"Miss Conti Queen" these are the right words to describe Ridhi Saksena. Jovial and understanding by nature, she is the psychiatrist of our wing. Her hobbies include listening to music and talking to anyone and everyone who crosses her path. This chemical stud is always ready to take on any kind of responsibility. A very warm and mature person, she is a lovely friend to all of us.

Laughter is the best medicine. This girl, popularly known as Jyo, strongly believes in it and follows it ardently too. "As cool as a cucumber" is the phrase that rightly describes her. Attending classes are not her cup of tea- a true BITSian. She is the only girl who follows the freshie's dress code throughout. Not even Mr. World can excite her, but a small sweet would do the trick. She worships Aishwarya Rai. This ever smiling ripsnorter plans to specialize in software.

"Don't go against nature. Take life as it comes," says Shorta Pearlson. This darling of the Riki wing, who gracefully turned down a cigar offered by an outsti girl, is the 'perfect girl' for her juniors. Ten years from now, she wishes to start her kindergarten and a pet house for lizards. She is compassionate enough to accept all proposals that come her way on Valentine's Day. She would do anything to add a few pounds to her lean stature, desperately stacking her cupboard with health pills and dairy products. This strikingly witty, sweet and understanding person plans to pursue her higher studies in Management.

This cute girl with long hair and dimpled smile, a very petite personality is patient, caring, sensitive and gives high importance to friendship. She is a philatelist. She loves reading poems and listening to melodious songs especially of Mohammad Rafi and Lata Mangeshkar which fill her with lots of enthuse but make others sleepy. She is a good squeaker and this talent of hers makes her different from others. She speaks continuously without even a comma or a full stop making others wait for the completion of the sentence. On the whole this hardworking and sincere girl is very friendly and helping in nature.

'WANTED' PRODUCERS- HOLLYWOOD SCRIPTS READY. This creative creature's goal is to become a hollywood director. He even got few scripts ready by devoting his entire first sem of his 2nd year, of course leading to a huge drop in CG. During that period, he would never let go of anyone he came across without explaining his stories. Udbi, as he is fondly called by all his friends, was a sincere student in his first year, attending 3 to 4 profs for each course. He is a pleasing personality. He was so popular amongst the freshers that he was elected KG messrep with minimal campaigning. A friendly person, he does everything he can to help his friends. Besides all this, music, dance, chess, cricket and a hearty meal are his favourites.

Right through his rigmarole rhetoric, he manages to induce rigermortis in many a rational men. This recalcitrant lives under the recondite impression of being a reincarnation of Elvis, ratified by his rattan like sideburns.
