Be it a delight or sadness, victory or worries, his heart is a huge place to capture all of them as his BITSian name CHEMBU- "a Telugu version of a vessel" indicates. He was ambitious of doing engineering but had to be satisfied with finance in BITS. His enormous interest in the course not only made him a near to perfect finance student but also fetched him a dual degree in information systems. He never looked back and rose to be the only student pursuing such a degree presently. He has a great ear for music and is always in search of friends. He is a great asset for his group in BITS-the invisible colours who adore him a lot. He often gets high and this is the time when he talks about his lady love.

This naive and pretty female, the youngest of our batch from Trichy is a very systematic and hardworking girl. She is one of the very few who follows the early to bed early to rise, saying arduously. Like most nineteen year olds she is very conscious about her looks and in fact wants to have full length mirrors on all four walls in every room of her house! She's god-fearing and very obedient to her parents. This Finance girl aspires to pursue a career in financial management.

This Lakhpati of Kamareddy, since his inception into BITS has been a very reticent fellow. He is very popular for his fundas in finance for which he is always seen with junta around him asking for help during the exams. Well, coming to his other side, he gets high- very high at times when he screams out FULL showing his forehead to people. His obsession for I.G.I. a computer game can be talked about. He perceives himself to be a cop battling all the hurdles in his way to a world of victories and happiness.

Here's a Casanova with a difference... His serenades are nursery rhymes preferably with a harmonica accompaniment and a lot of giggles. In his quest for theatrical perfection, he is one of the few people to have appeared on stage in a towel and nothing more. An active member of the mime club and one of the Controlz studs, he is famous for his clandestine romances. A passionate artist, his sketches of Aishwarya Rai put the real picture to shame, and he hopes that he will successfully find a girl to pose for his sketches. Apart from this, he is very interested in Management, and hopes to retire by 30. And yes.... he's a GREAT guy as well.

"When there is a will(s), there is a way" This is the adage that best suits this guy. He truly makes the concepts "Live with a spirit" a reality. For this guy, classes exist only in time tables, Professors exist only by names, but for the Redi which is a visual reality to him. This IIM-A aspirant wants to take up a career in management. Possessed with a will of iron, when he is really bent, cracking (courses) comes naturally and he does it with his own impeccable style. A true friend and a good person to have in any situation, he really knocks life (his and others) with the precision of a clock ticking (to seconds), with his affability and banter.

This six foot aspiring sportsman from Manchiryal came to study finance in BITS. He can tell you who was the captain of the England cricket team 15 years ago or Birla's fortune 15 years after, likewise, his elegant pull shot can be compared to his amazing pull up in cg. Girls were never a trouble for this gazelle lover, he never had any. The best part of his life was when this UPwala started learning Telugu, hmm thus saying "kukkalu velthunnaru". His funny accent in Telugu is worth mentioning as people imitate him by saying "ACHCHINA". This CAT aspirant is all set to fetch himself a seat in one of the most reputed IIM institutions in India and we all pray that this day would be very near to him.

He is the kind of person who accelerates into the hearts of the people with a great alacrity. He is caring and enjoys most of the moments of life. He is sometimes very irritating to few ICs (Invisible colours). He cares a lot about his sister and gets most of his things from the US sent by her. He is jovial and enjoys every joke around. He is cool and has no special interests. His love for the game of Table Tennis is appreciable. He loves to keep his things and himself clean. He did his schooling at St. Ann's followed by Gauthami at Hyderabad. And in 1999 he gained a place in BITS.

This ever tense crocodile, called so for his regularity in taking bath, comes from the "invisible colours" of BITS. This eloquent Cancerian is too modest and considers himself the jack of all trades but master of none though he is all set to be the topper in all CDCs. The ardent programmer with an adorable smile is all set to rob the financial world with his skills.

This Amul baby seems to be ever vetti in life. The beauty conscious 'Snow White' of the wing who spends lots of time in front of the mirror even though she needn't, makes heads turn wherever she goes. She loves freaking out and C'notting and doesn't miss out a single Hindi movie trusting her wingies to do the translation. A gourmet, she relishes anything edible that comes her way and still tries to keep fit thanks to her morning walks. This soft spoken, systematic Riky is all set to face any challenge that comes her way.
