Sujam, the self-proclaimed stud, would have us believe that he is very disciplined. He's an early riser and bathes early in the morning, even in winter. Being a hardcore Art & Dee member, he hardly ever visits his wing. As co-ord for oasis-2k1, he sacrificed his D12 for the department. Drumming is a passion for this die hard A. R. Rahaman fan. He made a late entry into music club but has left a lasting impression. His notes are famous in BITS not for their content but for his lovely handwriting. His quote for life is -"who cares".

This good looking girl ensures regular attendance of the classes. Very reserved by nature, she believes that success is a consequence of timely control and management of deeds and emotions-informally called "CONTROLZ..." This curious young lady who set herself in an amazing quest for knowledge is found either in the common room or in the Q.T with loads of books. Best of all, she hopes to join in Civil Services and extend a wonderful service.

First two years ... 8:00a.m. sleep ... 12:00p.m. sleep... 5:00p.m. sleep (no bath)... After PS-I... 8:00a.m. face wash... 8:30a.m. bath... 9:00 a.m. face wash... 9:30a.m. cream and beautification ... This goes on ... PS-I might have been unproductive to many but to him it seems to have been the most productive event of his BITSian life. If a stinking goose can start spending lump some on cosmetics, you have to believe his PS-I transition. Probably he chanted shree Namah more than 717 times! This lazy Chemistry Assoc Treasurer instead of working hard hardly works for his exams. His quote for life is "never say no" .

This pious Iyengar from chennai known for his "Rambha thighs" is a hardworking person. An ardent fan of Alaipayuthey "Shalini"(??), he is notorious for mimicking others (especially professors). A very talkative person, his goal is to crack CAT. This guy has a natural inclination towards practical courses. He is a core member of the department of trophy fabrication. He is renowned for his caustic remarks on people. In his first year his wingies got psyched when he got four letters in a single day (god knows from whom??) The primal of the wing, his quote for life is "Be confident and believe in life"

This guy, tall and cool is well known as Bhaav in campus but in the wing he is Gurram. He is fan of Kolli and the latter is a fan of Balakrishna (telugu actor). He sings like balu. Actually, he would have become singer. Unfortunately, he became an engineer. He is fan of Sachin and Tony Greg's commentary. He loves the commentary of Tony when Sachin is batting. He loves it like anything. He dies for one girl (name is not mentioned). He is friendly and dedicated to acads, and wants to become a software engineer. He believes in himself very much.

For one who can be so loud, Kosom can also be remarkably louder. He is one of the few existing people on the planet who are a complete assault on the senses. He is preceded by his voice, his distinctive body odour or his juniors. He has an interesting habit of having at least 8 nervous breakdowns a month (one for each test). These however don't seem to interfere with his chequered sporting career, during the course of which he excelled in cricket and football (and tried to play tennis...). His personal life is a mystery and seems to consist largely of long walks. Despite all this, he is one person who can be depended on. He plans to do a Masters in Mechanical Engineering. "POSH", if the very sound of this word makes you think about 'POSH SPICE', then you as a BITSIAN must be in a lost world. The so called PRO of Secunderabad and Hyderabad claims himself to be a playboy. A person with a caring heart and a helping hand, posh, alias Phani, did his schooling from LFJC, Hyderabad. A Mech engineer, he wants to pursue his studies on the lines of his proclaimed psenti back home, MS in automobiles. A Shah Rukh on stage and a Sachin in cricket, he is a truly versatile player in life. His caring (???) for others being evident in the fact that he requested his psenti not to come down to BITS for her ME since he being a dualite would be still doing his BE. GORA...how dangerous for any one to walk with him, reason being that all the girls will be looking at him and completely neglecting others. He wears Lee Cooper pants and Indigo Nation shirts but says that he is not at all dressed well...what can satisfy him. In his 3rd year every one accused him for increasing the averages. You name any Dept. or Club in Bits during his study, and find that this guy has at least been a G.L. He was about to give MECH SOL OB without a book and when the instructor reminded him of it, he claimed he doesn't need it. This stud bugger was a nightmare to his batch mate girls; because he used to warn them through mails for not caring for him (3 were his victims).
