By any chance if you ask him to sing a song he shall kill you by his powerful weapon (Kenyan national anthem). Any description about Film stars is just like a horn sounded before a deaf, but it is not the case with acads. He is just a gem. His thinking is way ahead of others no matter whom you compare him with. Ask him a doubt in any subject you can receive a convincing reply which may surprise you after a moment. Finally you have nothing to argue about. We wish him all the best for his future endeavours.

Sasheen Shev Ti- make no mistake, this chweet 4 footer (or nearly 6" as he insists), with that 'Oh My Gawd' accent is only presently residing in the village of Malapurram, Kerala. This hard"core" member of department of Controlz is often the man when it comes to switching sexes for stage plays and BBS appearances. Most hated for his PILE ON habits, he was the victim of a hit and run accident when a slightly larger counterpart assaulted him as he attempted to showcase his skills. Beneath his fluorescent / govinda orange / neon yellow exteriors lies an ambitious, diligent student who aspires for a successful career in Mobile Telecommunications.

This simple, hardworking, sincere girl is well-known for her sense of humour. She has the most infectious laugh and her favourite past time is pulling others' legs. She took 9 courses in her 3rd year first sem and cracked them all out of shape...in fact her d-mates were even planning to lock her in the room during the tests so the avg doesn't increase. She is a perfect time management co-ord who plans out as to what is to be done every second of the day. She was the joint-coord for APOGEE 2002. Her hobbies include dancing, singing and painting. She is planning to pursue her higher studies in Industrial Engineering.

Do you know what thinking is all about? Don't try dwelling into his brain you may end up getting nuts! The way he convinces you with his explanation makes you ponder what his thinking is all about. If you ever glance at him in the class you would wonder if he's listening to the lecture or he's lost in his own world. If you ever want to play cricket with him Guys Beware! He will throw the bat on you instead of hitting the ball. Go to his room you may never know which book you may find, could be something like Database architecture report management engineering. This guy is a jack of all trades. Hey mind your tongue, master of all.

Vishwas, E.T by wrong choice had his first crush on a dayski batch mate just because an astrologer had told him that he would love and probably marry a north Indian girl. This body builder has a habit of going to bed so early around 7 pm even if there is a compe next morning. This eminent and dedicated ET co-ord is good at communication skills and is determined to pursue his higher studies in Germany.

If you want to know about this guy, you better ask the nightmares faced by the bowlers with whom he generally bats. He is considered to be the best batsman inside the field or outside. He has a kind heart towards friends and but hates courses which are 'by heart'. He even has the capability of picking wickets (interested ones), by sketching greeting cards superbly or by flattery. His armour is a little smile and confidence to achieve anything. So, girls be careful, he is coming.

This waste- as his name implies, is a sincere class attender. Known as Vetti, a well suited name, he is well known for becoming the course topper of toughest courses and vice versa. His claim of being absolutely different ends up in putting somebody in a spot of trouble. This silent mischief maker doesn't even give a try to study for tests. Having been a sincere PTM member, this software stud, wants to become a pilot after doing his Ph.D, and he is all set to pursue his M.S. abroad.

You can easily spot her in any crowd, the reason, simple she is just 176cms, short. Her Rapunzel like hair has earned her the title ET Beauty. Even in the middle of a hectic test schedule she finds time to clean her room, which is always spick and span. A multifaceted person, you want proof, ET Sec, Rec 'n' Acc member, Raagamaalika member etc, etc. We wish her good luck for her future and to find a guy of her height

Guys, be careful of this don who is capable of ruining your courses if you do them along with him. If he studies along with you for some test then you are sure to get screwed up in that test especially if that subject is of crap nature. If he gets angry then he is on the top of the whole world and would be busy dictating Adolph Hitler if he were alive. But his friends are the core of his life and he adores them whole heartedly. This guy was one of those distinct people who were considered to be the shortest creatures living in BITS (was once when he entered BITS). Well this guy is known for invariably maintaining neat and tidy notes which are text books for others. This guy may be one of those magnanimous guys BITS has ever seen.
